

Democracy requires a free and open press! Allowing media giants to own more news media outlets, where information could be skewed to their liking , is a dangerous path to be on. This issue must be explored more in a open public forum...